Overland Mail Route

A short time since serious interruptions in the conveyance of the Overland Mail between the Atlantic and Pacific boards were threatened by the contractor, on account of his dissatisfaction with the attitude of Congress on the question of renewing the contract We are rejoiced to learn that the danger is past, and we in Oregon are not likely to lose our small share of the benefit arising from the enterprise It is a small share as yet, to be sure, but infinitely ahead of any facilities offered by the primitive methods of mail transportation Mr C M Carter, who arrived yesterday on the San Francisco steamer, and who, while in Washington, was appointed Special Postal Agent, made the trip through to California from the East overland, and reports very favorably of the route west of Salt Lake. To the eastward, owing to the swollen streams and absence of bridges, the mails are liable to detention for several consecutive days at a branch of the Platte Mr Carter says that the road east of the Rocky Mountains was lined with emigrants The protection afforded them at the present time is mainly due to the pre establishment of a mail route, for the better protection of which, per se our Government has established a line of forts, sufficiently near each other for the purposes of any emergency, and the presence of these garrisons tend to keep in subjection the hostile Indian bands who formerly did so much mischief Most of the emigrants pass up the north side of the Platte, on account of better grass. Mr Carter draws a cheerful picture of the progress of civilization and settlement in what a few years since was but a barren and friendless wilderness The stages passing daily keep the forts and the settlers posted on the news of the route, and barbarism falls back instinctively from a region which every day is illuminated with lights from both East and West Many beautiful valleys on the way are being settled and civilization manifests itself to the traveler in schools and churches Soon the trip overland will be as a pleasant journey from village to village, until the homes of boyhood on the further shore are reached, and the old folks stand waiting to greet their children from the farthest west

IMPORTANT DECISION —The jury in the case of H Schlaud vs Thornally and Simpson, tried in the Circuit Court of this county, on Wednesday last, returned a verdict yesterday morning in favor of the defendants This was an action of ejectment for a piece of land lying on the line between the Coffin and Caruthers patent—the plaintiff claiming title under the Caruthers patent and the defendants claiming title under the Coffin patent, and the question involved was one of vast importance to a great number of property holders along the line of the two patents, involving an inquiry as to the true location of the division line between the patents Their effect of the verdict is to establish the line known as the old picket fence line

Phil Herbert, who became notorious for murdering an Irish hotel waiter in Washington City, while misrepresenting California in Congress, is now in the rebel army, and was wounded at the battle of Mansfield, La He is on the right side of this question, but we don't see how any of our Irish fellow citizens can be so deluded as to suppose him fighting to accomplish any good for them Yet O'Meara is doing all he can to secure to this man, known as "the Irish waiter killer," the moral if not financial support of our loyal Irish Catholics

C H BRACKETT, Esq., the gentleman to whom we alluded yesterday as having been appointed Agent of the National Freedmen's Relief Association for this State and Washington Territory, arrived from San Francisco on the John L Stephens and is at present stopping at the Western Hotel He proposes at an early day to present the claims of this praiseworthy association before the people of Oregon, and will doubtless address the citizens of Portland during the coming week

In the year 1862 no less than 196,053 rifles and muskets were shipped at Liverpool for New York, Boston, Portland and Philadelphia also about 34 tons of ordnance and ordnance stores, 11 947,000 percussion caps 119 fowling pieces, 82 swords and 28 pistols

THE LAST BRICK —The Esmeralda County (Cal) Sanitary Association have sent a silver brick, weighing 1 542 ounces valued at $4,517, to the United States Sanitary Commission

STABBING AFFRAY —James White, a miner, from Howard Hill, was dangerously stabbed by Bartholomew Fogarty, a sailor, at Grass Valley, Cal, recently

Letter from Placerville

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

PLACERVILLE, Idaho Co, June 13 1864

The political ball has been started in motion in Idaho Territory—the Democrats taking the lead The Democratic Primary meeting was held last night and delegates elected to attend the Territorial Convention which meets at Hancock City a week hence The Union party will hold their convention at the same place on the 20th inst It is impossible to say who the candidates of either party will be

Our water has commenced falling and the companies are now engaged in sluicing Those who have drawn back in this locality on account of the scarcity of water will take hold again with renewed energy as the waters of the Payette Hundreds of claims are now dry and will remain so until next Spring, unless a couple of months work will be done on that early ditch now in the hands of the People of Idaho City talking of bringing in the water of the Boise river I hope they will do so, although I very much doubt its accomplishment

Our Post office is at last established here and the first U S mail into this portion of Uncle Sam's domain arrived on the 2d inst bringing 450 letters

The Wildrose Theatrical troupe are delighting the people of Idaho City with their performances in connection with the well known Robinson Family

EDITOR OREGONIAN

You have already received the result of the election in this county We have resulted the stroke by sending a son of that miserable old traitor Jo Lane to the Legislature We regard it as a public calamity, and are willing to acknowledge, in humiliation the great error which we have allowed to be committed The election went by default upon our part We made no efforts—relying upon the patriotism of the people—while the Democrats, like snakes, were prowling about in every nook and corner of the county, spreading the most infamous and outrageous falsehoods about our ticket and candidates The result was that at least two hundred good loyal men did not vote at all while every Southern sympathizer was on hand at the polls and voted early

The people of Oregon may rest assured that this county will give one hundred and fifty majority for Lincoln and Johnson over both the Democratic candidates From present appearances, the Democrats will have two candidates in the field—the Radical Democracy with Fremont and Cochran and the real old rebel copperhead Democracy with McClellan or Fillmore, and this county may be depended upon as above stated

Old Jo now has one son in the rebel army and one in the Oregon Legislature, both working for the same object to wit to break down the Administration of Abraham Lincoln,—thank God, one is about as impotent as the other to accomplish their much desired object

We have saved our Joint Senator, and we can rely upon James Fyle to represent us in the State Legislature If the people of the State will only forgive us this time we will hereafter make amends "X"

MCCLELLAN IN THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC The Burlington (Vt) Times says "Colonel Hooper B. Stoughton, United States Sharpshooters, send us the following 'straw' about how McClellan stands in the Army of the Potomac

HEADQUARTERS SECOND U S SHARPSHOOTERS
April 20th, 1864

A little incident occurred in my regiment last evening which may have a tendency to open the eyes of some of our Vermont Copperheads It was as follows The men of the regiment desired to give an expression of feeling in regard to the coming election, consequently I arranged a ballot box and selected an officer to attend to it and allowed all the men who desired to vote to put in their own ticket The result was as follows Total vote cast 240 For Lincoln, 205, McClellan, 41, scattering, 20 Almost every veteran voted for Abraham Lincoln Those who did not vote for him were not the vets"

CURE FOR HYDROPHOBIA —A dog keeper in England, who was bitten eight times by rabid dogs, each time averted the horrors of hydrophobia by allowing the common nitrate of silver to filter the wound, which decomposed the saliva, and then destroyed the virus A London physician adopts and endorses the remedy

THE LOYAL BANNER COUNTY —We are informed by a gentleman from Tillamook that Col Kelly did not receive a single vote in that county at the late election The pure ocean air was too much for swamp treason, and not a single case of Democratic miasma is known thereabouts As goes Tillamook so goes the State

—The Sacramento Star says it has seen but three men who will vote for Fremont since the "Pathfinder" received his nomination One was a man who thinks the black race superior to the white, and the other two are well known sympathizers with the rebel traitors.

A Salt Lake dispatch to the Union says that teams begin to arrive from the East with goods for merchants of that city The trade which has been done with California heretofore has been diverted to the East in consequence of the exchange on gold

Four or five of the Sacramento city military companies turned out recently for battalion drill They marched through the principal streets of the city by moonlight, singing "Old John Brown," etc

Mr. Whiting, Solicitor of the War Department at Washington, refuses to accept of any pay from the Government for his service He is rich and can afford to work for nothing, and has patriotism to do so

The French propose that a new nation should be formed on the left bank of the Rhine, or that the provinces there should be united with Belgium, so as to shield France from Austria and Prussian pressure

Sixty cents on the dollar is what they take greenbacks for at Nassau N P Confederate notes are ten cents on the dollar at the same place

CHARLESTON AS ITIS—HALF THE CITY DESERTED —MAJORITY OF CITIZENS FOR THE UNION — The following letter from a respectable citizen of Charleston, S C a Union man, to gentleman of Philadelphia, gives a full and accurate picture of the city as it was February 23d, 1864 The statements can be depended upon as accurate and impartial

A great change has come over the city since you left The population is almost entirely above Went to Mr Steel—hardly a soul below Market Street The post office is at the corner of King and Ann streets the banks are now at that of Cannon street Gillmore's shells fell in Wentworth street before the last Presidential election but since the election of the public buildings stores and private houses on Common street is almost solid as The deserted portion of the city in which the bombardment has been the fiercest is that in which one hundred houses have been struck in that part of the town Your old room in the upper story had a shell explode in it The prices of living are in our currency enormous

Hotels charge from $12 to $20 a day, and the cheapest boarding house is $6 a day At present rates it costs me about $600 a month Beef is selling at $1 a pound sugar (poor brown) at $1 00 a pound corn whisky $50 to $70 a gallon oak wood at $25 a cord You can therefore imagine the pleasures of housekeeping at these rates A barrel of flour from Wilmington cost me $400, and I bought a box of herring which used to cost me 75 cents a day for $25 —has lain in a hiding place some months to avoid conscription Rebel Congress to do even as the owls—go out at nights Once I was a victim of misplaced confidence he went to Wilmington to buy and got a chance and he was dubbed enrolled and only escaped by jumping from the cars and taking to the woods

Finally after enduring incredible hardships and walking 75 miles in 33 hours he got back to a place of hiding in Wilmington whence he returned and is now perdu where only intimate friends can find him Deserters throng the woods and swamps all over the country the rebels hunt them as they do negroes with dogs says he saw 22 men brought in the other day, tied two and two, who had been caught by hounds Two others were shot in attempting to escape

Our condition is as bad as it can be. The despotism is as bad as it can be, though curses loud and deep are uttered against the Government by many men who were secessionists There is a very large sprinkling of Union men here It is quite doubtful if there is not a majority in Charleston who are for the Union The town is very much changed Scarcely anybody believes that slavery can live much longer The thing is about up If the Federalists mail the spring campaign what it ought to be, the people will cry enough

Congress has just passed a law compelling the funding of Confederate notes in four per cent bonds, before April 1, on penalty of paying a tax of 33½ per cent on the notes after that date, and if they are not funded by January 1, 1865, they are to be taxed 100 per cent This is repudiation with a vengeance Then a tax of five per cent on everything adds to the delights of our situation

PUGNACIOUS —Some contemptible secessionist, with the duplicity characteristic of his class, imposed upon an Irishman of this town, the other day by reading to him the extract from the "Miscegenation" book which is so bitter upon the Irish, and persuading him that it was our editorial! Jealous of the honor of his countrymen, and indignant at the slander which he had been made to believe we had written, he called the other day to vent his wrath and avenge the insult, by giving us a thrashing Our fighting man Fortunately, was not in, and it therefore devolved upon us—the poor knight of the quill—to maintain the honor of the concern He had come for a fight, however, and it was only with the greatest difficulty we could persuade him that pummelling us was a most unnecessary, one called for, and unconstitutional proceeding Our eloquence, however, at last, had its usual convincing effect and the irate Milesian finally left us, satisfied that we had expressed no such opinions of his countrymen as those held by the author of "Miscegenation," and vowing vengeance on the cowardly perfidy and scoundrel who had so misled him —Statesman

SPRINGFIELD (MASS) ARMORY —This institution has proved to be one of the most serviceable armories that we have in the country Since the commencement of the battles in Virginia the Government has made several requisitions upon the Springfield Armory to make good the drain upon the Washington Arsenal Latterly, orders were received and filled for 144 boxes of artillery harness, each box containing two complete sets, and 500 extra collars and traces There have also been forwarded 7,000 sets of cavalry, and as many of infantry accoutrements beside twenty four caissons which were sent May 16th The orders have about exhausted the supply of accoutrements on hand, but more will soon come in from the manufactories on hand, but more will soon come in from the manufactories Meanwhile the accumulation of guns goes on, and has reach 1 240,000

PRISON OF CORRESPONDENTS IN GEN SHERMAN'S ARMY —It is reported that Gen Sherman upon reading in a letter of B F Taylor to the Chicago Evening Journal that "our lines now extend from Knoxville to Huntsville, wrote an order to his Provost Marshal directing the immediate arrest of a spy one Benjamin F Taylor, his trial by drum head Court-martial and execution This order resulted in the withdrawal of Taylor and the abrupt termination of his letters, which, with all their graces and charms of style had at most upper touched no kindly chord in Gen Sherman's heart.

SMUGGLING OPIUM —One of the Chinese Johns recently landed from the ship J L Dimmock, was observed to look rather portly and to walk in a constrained manner by a Custom House officer, who thought he would prospect him for contraband effects, and got thirty five boxes of opium worth eight dollars apiece for his trouble —S F Call

REBEL TORPEDO BOAT DAVID SINK —It is believed at the Navy Department that Lieut Dixon and his little torpedo boat, the David lie side by side with the Housatonic at the bottom of the water The big ship sucked the little one down with her All was over in five minutes —Petersburg Express, April 6th

GENEROUS —Joseph F Taylor, of Eugene City, Oregon, recently collected a claim of one hundred and sixty dollars from the Government, and immediately donated it to the Sanitary Commission

MORE SNAKE OUTRAGES —Intelligence has been received of an attack by Snake Indians upon the pack trains on the Canyon City road One train lost 16 mules, the other nine These outrages must be speedily stopped, or our trade in that direction will be ruined

New York city has a church for every three thousand inhabitants, a groggery for every one hundred

Coughs and Colds —The sudden changes of our climate create more of these annoying and dangerous affections Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to Bhat. Bronchial Troches or Lozenges for the Cold Cough, or irritation of the throat be exercised at once by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectively warded

PUBLIC SPEAKERS and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice Soldiers should have them as they can be carried in the pocket, and drink in as occasion requires

REDINGTON & Co, San Francisco Agents for the Pacific Coast

Dr Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative It regulates secretions and purifies them Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties and it is recommended to mothers enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity as the safest and best tonic they can probably use In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants —Sold by all Druggists and Dealers every where ap26dlm

A CHILD KEPT SIX YEARS FROM ITS PARENTS —QUEER CASE OF ABDUCTION —We have been furnished with the particulars of a case of abduction, which is said to have occurred seven years ago, and which may probably result in the loss of a child to its parents, entitled to it The circumstances are about to recur, as occurred in the following manner Six years ago last February, a small girl belonging to a family named Hegey was taken from their home three miles above Vancouver, and carried to the crossing of Sandy, on the old Barlow grant road, by a man who gave his name as Davis who there stated that the child would be provided with a home at his sister's in Portland Shortly after arriving there the girl Davis attempted to cross the river in company with her, but was prevented by another He then told conflicting stories regarding the child, and was seen to abuse it, in such a manner that the neighbors, incensed at his conduct, rescued the girl, and compelled the abductor to flee From that time the child has remained in the vicinity, and is now with a family by the name of Revenue, and all traces of the abductor and circumstances connected with her abduction are fast passing away, still she has a longing for her own home, and frequently weeps bitterly to be returned The only light which appears to be thrown upon the subject now, by way of unravelling the whereabouts of her people, is the fact that her grandfather, named LaBonte resided in Vancouver Friends of the family are anxious to have her restored from her present place as it is understood she has undergone much suffering and privation

THE DENNISON HOTEL —We understand that our neighbor, Mr S N Arrigoni, who for a long time has conducted the Pioneer Hotel in a most popular and successful manner has now become the lessee for a term of years, of the fine hotel block known as the Dennison House and has purchased from Mr Kinney the occupant for the last two years all the furniture and fixtures in the house After some repairs, replenishing painting, the House will soon be again open as a first class Hotel, under the personal management of Mr Arrigoni, who is a gentleman and who will, we are sure, maintain as high a standard for his establishment as any in the city The Pioneer Hotel will henceforth be under the charge of Mr Arrigoni, a most accomplished assistant, who will have special charge of the table, and keep it up to the highest point

BENEFIT —Our citizens will have an opportunity this evening of attending a very best Concerts ever given in this city The performers are from Salem and ought to be encouraged by people to attend This is a strange world

THE JOHN L STEPHENS —This steamship, which arrived yesterday afternoon, being the largest vessel that ever visited Portland, was quite an attraction, and her decks received numerous visitors Her shape was very much improved during last year, she having been nearly rebuilt in California, and is undoubtedly the finest craft on the coast, but we would much rather see the new vessels promised us, as being better adapted to this trade The Stephens can cross Swan Island bar now, but it would be an impossibility three months hence

RECORDER'S COURT —Charles Prior received a fine of $50 and costs, before Recorder McCoy on Thursday, for whipping his wife, in default of which he was locked up for the term of twenty days This is the person who was released on a former arrest for a similar offense on Wednesday. Another complaint appears against him on the docket of the Recorder consideration of which is at present postponed

THE FOURTH —If we cannot get up a celebration in Portland on the Fourth, our eminent citizens turn out liberally to deliver the orations at other places. We learn that Gov Gibbs will attend at Lafayette, Hon. Geo H Williams at Yamhill, Hon A. Holbrook at Hillsboro and most likely Hon J. H. Mitchell, at the Dalles

CIRCUIT COURT —In the Circuit Court yesterday the case of Charles Bowie vs. R J. Ladd, Sheriff, was heard, and decided in favor of the defendant—motion was made for a new trial The case of A M & L M. Starr vs the O S N Co, for damages sustained to a portion of the cargo of the bark W. A Banks two years since, was in progress of trial.

PICKLED CLAMS —Capt. Dodge received a few cases of pickled small necked clams, by the steamer last evening, which are most excellent for table use They are put up at places on Puget Sound, in cases of one gallon each We recommend epicures to try them

TIME OF DEPARTURE.—The steamer for San Francisco is advertised to leave on Monday morning at 4 o'clock.

A CHILD KEPT SIX YEARS FROM ITS HOME —QUEER CASE OF ABDUCTION.—We have been furnished with the particulars of a case of abduction, which is said to have occurred six years ago, and which may probably result in the loss of a child to its parents, entirely. The circumstances we are about to relate, occurred in the following manner: Six years ago last February, a small girl belonging to a family named Hegey, was taken from her home, three miles above Vancouver, and carried to the crossing of Sandy, on the old emigrant road, by a man who gave his name as Davis, who there stated that the child was to be provided with a home at his sister's in Portland. Shortly after arriving there with the girl, Davis attempted to cross the mountains with her, but was prevented by snows. He then told conflicting stories regarding the child, and was seen to abuse it, in such manner that the neighbors, incensed at his conduct, rescued the girl, and compelled the man to flee. From that time the child has remained in the vicinity, and is now with a family by the name of Revinue, and all traces of the incidents connected with her abduction are passing away, still she has a longing for her home, and frequently weeps bitterly to be returned. The only light which appears to be thrown upon the subject now, by way of revealing the whereabouts of her people, is the fact that her grandfather, named LaBell, resided in Vancouver. Friends of the girl are anxious to have her removed from the present place, as it is understood she has to undergo much suffering and privation.

THE DENNISON HOUSE.—We understand that our neighbor, Mr. S. N. Arrigoni, who for a long time has conducted the Pioneer Hotel, in a most popular and successful manner, has now also become the lessee for a term of years, of the fine hotel block known as the Dennison House, and has purchased from Mr. Kinney, its occupant for the last two years, all the furniture and fixtures in the hotel. After some necessary repairs, replenishing, painting, etc., the House will soon be again opened as a first class hotel, under the personal superintendence of Mr. Arrigoni, who knows how to keep a hotel, and who will, we are sure, be careful that it maintains as high a reputation as any similar establishment can—in the State or on the coast. The Pioneer Hotel will still remain under the charge of Mr. Arrigoni, whose accomplished assistant, Mr. B. G. Whitehouse, will have special charge of it, and keep its character up to the highest point.

MRS. DENISON'S BENEFIT.—Our citizens will have an opportunity this evening of attending one of the very best Concerts ever given in this city. The performers are from our own home circles, which ought to be considered an inducement for our people to attend. But the object of the Concert is a stronger reason why it should be patronized. It is for the benefit of the widow and children of the late J. P. Denison, once the leader of a Band in this city. All who were acquainted with Mr. Denison, can certify to his generosity, his readiness to render assistance to the unfortunate. His family are left with very little means, and it seems appropriate that the musicians of the city should volunteer in giving them a benefit. We hope our citizens will feel interested in the matter and make it a bossing benefit. In this connection we are requested by Chief Engineer Buchtel to state to the members of the different companies who intend contributing to the object of the concert, that the Mechanics' Brass Band will be in attendance at the House of No. 3, to escort them to the Theatre, in citizen's dress, at 7½ o'clock P. M. The Parquette will be specially reserved for members of the Fire Department.

ARRIVAL OF THE JOHN L. STEPHENS.—The steamship John L. Stephens, Francis Connor Commander, sailed from San Francisco on the 12th inst., at 4 o'clock P. M., for Portland, and arrived via Victoria, at 4 o'clock P. M. yesterday. She brings 540 tons of freight, and the following passengers:

O L MURDOCK, Purser.

THE JOHN L. STEPHENS.—This steamship, which arrived yesterday afternoon, being the largest vessel that ever visited Portland, was quite an attraction, and her decks received numerous visitors. Her shape was very much improved during last year, she having been nearly rebuilt in California, and is undoubtedly the finest craft on the coast, but we would much rather see the new vessels promised us, as being better adapted to this trade. The Stephens can cross Swan Island bar now, but it would be an impossibility three months hence.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Charles Prior received a fine of $50 and costs, before Recorder McCoy on Thursday, for whipping his wife, in default of which he was locked up for the term of twenty days. This is the person who was released, on a former arrest for a similar offense on Wednesday. Another complaint appears against him on the docket of the Recorder, consideration of which is at present postponed.

THE FOURTH.—If we cannot get up a celebration in Portland on the Fourth, our eminent citizens turn out liberally to deliver the orations at other places. We learn that Gov. Gibbs will attend at Lafayette, Hon. Geo. H. Williams at Yamhill, Hon. A. Holbrook at Hillsboro, and most likely Hon. J. H. Mitchell, at the Dalles.

CIRCUIT COURT.—In the Circuit Court yesterday the case of Charles Bowie vs. R. J. Ladd, Sheriff, was heard, and decided in favor of the defendant—motion was made for a new trial. The case of A. M. & L. M. Starr vs. the O. S. N. Co., for damages sustained to a portion of the cargo of the bark B. A. Banks two years since, was in progress of trial.

PICKLED CLAMS.—Capt. Dodge received a few cases of pickled small-necked clams, by the steamer last evening, which are most excellent for table-use. They are put up at places on Puget Sound, in cases of one gallon each. We recommend epicures to try them.

TIME OF DEPARTURE.—The steamer for San Francisco is advertised to leave on Monday morning at 4 o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—We are requested to state that there will be no service in the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow (Sabbaday, June 26th) in consequence of the unexpected but necessary absence of the Pastor.

THE schooner Ellen is loading with brick at Abernethy's wharf, for the fortifications at Cape Disappointment.

A STRONG INDUCEMENT.—The following endorsement of the concerts given by Messrs. Dodge and Hayward, we copy from a letter written by one of the most eminent and eloquent divines in Oregon. He says: "Any influence exerted towards securing those gentlemen a good audience, will certainly serve the cause of morality, and in my judgment, of religion also." This is the way these musical reformers are endorsed everywhere by men of refinement, of intelligence, literary ability and Union sentiment. These gentlemen give their farewell concert in Portland in the court-house on Monday evening next, the 27th.

82. In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.
Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, and take no other. Sold everywhere.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

PORTLAND, Friday June 24th—2 P. M.

Trade for the week has been inactive, except in certain descriptions of goods, for country orders. The receipts of flour during the time under review, have been fully up to the previous week, and in addition to immense quantities now in store, nearly 300 tons have been shipped to the upper Columbia. One material cause of so much flour going forward at the present time in that direction, is a reduction in carrying that class of freight, by the O. S. N. Co. Prices have not changed, although a little competition today run outside brands up to $7, in a light transaction. Sales continue to be governed at our wholesale rates.

Wheat has been partially neglected as the receipt is limited to a few bushels only for the week. Oats have been more active and in fair demand at the ruling figures, 60@70 cents. Good Barley is worth 3 cents.

Bacon has been in quite lively demand at 16 to 16½ cts. Large quantities are in store, consigned to our merchants, which is held at 18 cts.

Butter appears to be in fair demand at somewhat advanced prices. Prime article, for table use, sells at 30 cts. in half bbls., retail 31½. Fresh rolls 25@30 cts. Common for cooking, 20@25 cts.

City buyers are paying 18 cents per lb to-day for Oregon Cheese. Eggs 25 cents per dozen, for a few lots, but the average prices are not above 23 cents per doz.

The Fruit and Vegetable market is now quite well supplied, although the season is too far advanced for any other than small lots of some varieties. Cherries are retailing at 60 to 65 cents per lb.; Gooseberries about the same; Currants 25@37½. Raspberries 20@37½. Blackberries 37½ cts per gallon. Bananas are selling at 10 cents retail, 6 cents wholesale, comprising a lot delivered per bark Cambridge, from the Sandwich Islands.

Small lots of new Oregon potatoes were in market to-day and sold hastily at $4 per bushel. Green peas retail at 5 @6 cents per lb.

The receipts of treasure from the mining districts since our last week's report have been $142,000, for five days, on Tuesday no bullion arrived. The amount now on hand, available for shipment, will exceed former shipments by the Express Company, and it is not known, and probably never will be known, how much goes in private hands, as it is often the case that parties club together to make remittances, sending by individuals, thus saving to themselves the rates asked on treasure shipped in the regular course of business. The following are the receipts of the week, by Wells, Fargo & Co.:

Friday, 17th inst.	$8,000
Saturday, 18th	2,000
Monday, 20th	6,000
Tuesday, 21st
Wednesday, 22d	95,000
Thursday, 23d	31,000
Total	$142,000

Our exports per ocean bound vessels, for the week closing, amount to nothing. The steamship John L. Stephens, and bark Jane A. Falkinburgh, are expected to-morrow, and will clear before the close of another week for San Francisco. The Cambridge will also clear, for Honolulu, the coming week.

A recapitulation of imports to the Port of Victoria, for the month ending May 31st, 1864, shows a value of $30,945, on receipts from Portland, against $35,396 from London and Liverpool, $22,865 from Puget Sound, $166,118 from San Francisco.

A CHILD KEPT SIX YEARS FROM ITS HOME —QUEER CASE OF ABDUCTION.—We have been furnished with the particulars of a case of abduction, which is said to have occurred six years ago, and which may probably result in the loss of a child to its parents, entirely. The circumstances we are about to relate, occurred in the following manner: Six years ago last February, a small girl belonging to a family named Hegey was taken from her home, three miles above, Vancouver, and carried to the crossing of Sandy, on the old emigrant road, by a man who gave his name as Davis, who there stated that the child was to be provided with a home at his sister's in Portland. Shortly after arriving there with the girl, Davis attempted to cross the mountains with her, but was prevented by snows. He then told conflicting stories regarding the child, and was seen to abuse it, in such manner that the neighbors, incensed at his conduct, rescued the girl, and compelled the man to flee. From that time the child has remained in the vicinity, and is now with a family by the name of Revinue, and all traces of the incidents connected with her abduction are passing away, still she has a longing for her home, and frequently weeps bitterly to be returned. The only light which appears to be thrown upon the subject now, by way of revealing the whereabouts of her people, is the fact that her grandfather, named LeBell, resided in Vancouver. Friends of the girl are anxious to have her removed from the present place, as it is understood she has to undergo much suffering and privation.

THE DENNISON HOUSE.—We understand that our neighbor, Mr. S. N. Arrigoni, who for a long time has conducted the Pioneer Hotel, in a most popular and successful manner, has now also become the lessee for a term of years, of the fine hotel block known as the Dennison House, and has purchased from Mr. Kinney, its occupant for the last two years, all the furniture and fixtures in the hotel. After some necessary repairs, replenishing, painting, etc., the House will soon be again opened as a first class hotel, under the personal superintendence of Mr. Arrigoni, who knows how to keep a hotel, and who will, we are sure, be found that it maintains as high a reputation as any similar establishment can —In the State or on the coast. The Pioneer Hotel will still remain under the charge of Mr. Arrigoni, whose accomplished assistant, Mr. B. G. Whitehouse, will have special charge of it, and keep its character up to the highest point.

MRS. DENNISON'S BENEFIT.—Our citizens will have an opportunity this evening of attending one of the very best Concerts ever given in this city. The performers are from our own home circles, which ought to be considered an inducement for our people to attend. But the object of the Concert is a stronger reason why it should be patronized. It is for the support of the widow and children of the late [illegible] Dennison, once the leader of a Band in this city. All who were acquainted with Mr. Dennison, can certify to his generosity, his readiness to render assistance to the unfortunate. His family are left with very little means, and it seems appropriate that the musicians of the city should volunteer in giving them a benefit. We hope our citizens will feel interested in the matter and make it a rousing benefit. In this connection we are requested by Chief Engineer Buchtel to state to the members of the different companies who intend contributing to the object of the concert, that the Mechanics Brass Band will be in attendance at the House on No. 3, to escort them to the Theatre, in citizen's dress, at 7½ o'clock P. M. The Parquette will be specially reserved for members of the Fire Department.

ARRIVAL OF THE JOHN L. STEPHENS.—The steamship John L. Stephens, Francis Connor Commander, sailed from San Francisco on the 19th inst. at 4 o'clock P. M., for Portland, and arrived at Victoria at 4 o'clock P. M. yesterday. She brings 500 tons of freight, and the following passengers:

For Victoria—Ben Brackett, Ben Williams, Mrs Miller, Jno L Stevens, [illegible], L S Mitchell, L Young, H Brown, M Burrows, O A Palmer, Mrs M Marion and three children, E W Ash, R R Haines, M D Spear and wife, Richd Thackera, Hamilton, Mrs Lucas, J W Herndon, L F Grover [illegible], M Butler, John Barnes, Jas Flemming, Mr [illegible], R Roberts, L Bennett, L Bennett, W Bauss, Mrs [illegible], Paul Spaun, Wm M Williams, A H Rector and wife and three children, N J Reed, A L Provost, Charles Carter wife and servant, Mr Bray, Mrs Boyd & son, F H [illegible], Mrs Grimes, A Crousman, J Crousman and wife, [illegible], Miss Turnbull, Miss Rowe and wife, J A Aldrich, Jas Irving, and 2 children, Mrs M E Mayer, G Shindler, Mrs Purnell, Capt G Flores, J Dunbury, Wm Barston, Y [illegible], Rev Thos. N Morris & Sisters of Charity, Chas [illegible], Miss Mary Gilbert, J H Lambert, Miss E Lockhart, J Cattle, H Dunsmuir, Clancy, San Saragosa and wife, Col Jos Hinsley, J S Smith, Mrs Jane Church, Miss [illegible], Jasper Rand, Miss Shindler, Moses Levy, H [illegible], J G Burke, J C Beach, Frank Haminey, and [illegible], Wells, Fargo & Co's Messenger and 112 others.

O L MURDOCK, Purser

THE JOHN L. STEPHENS.—This steamship, which arrived yesterday afternoon, being the first vessel that ever visited Portland, was quite an attraction, and her decks received numerous visitors. Her shape was very much improved during last year, she having been nearly rebuilt in California, and is undoubtedly the finest craft on the coast, but we would much rather see the new vessels promised us, as being better adapted to this trade. The Eliza can cross Swan Island bar now, but it would be an impossibility three months hence.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Charles Prior received a fine of $50 and costs, before Recorder McCoy on Thursday, for whipping his wife, in default of which he was locked up for the term of twenty days. This is the person who was released, on a former arrest for a similar offence, on Wednesday. Another complaint appears against him on the docket of the Recorder; consideration of which is at present postponed.

THE FOURTH.—If we cannot get up a celebration in Portland on the Fourth, our eminent citizens turn out liberally to deliver the orations at other places. We learn that Gov. Gibbs will attend at Lafayette, Hon. Geo. H. Williams at Yamhill, Hon. A. Holbrook at Hillsboro, and most likely Hon. J. H. Mitchell, at the Dalles.

CIRCUIT COURT.—In the Circuit Court yesterday the case of Charles Bowie vs. R. J. Ladd, Sheriff, was heard, and decided in favor of the defendant—motion was made for a new trial. The case of A. M. & L. M. Starr vs. the O. S. N. Co., for damages sustained to a portion of the cargo of the bark W. A. Banks two years since, was in progress of trial.

PICKLED CLAMS.—Capt. Dodge received a few cases of pickled small-necked clams, by the steamer last evening, which are most excellent for table-use. They are put up at Olney's on Puget Sound, in cases of one gallon each. We recommend epicures to try them.

TIME OF DEPARTURE.—The steamer for San Francisco is advertised to leave on Monday morning at 4 o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—We are requested to state that there will be no service in the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow (Saturday, June 26th) in consequence of the unexpected but necessary absence of the Pastor.

THE schooner Ellen is loading with brick at Abernethy's wharf, for the fortifications at Cape Disappointment.

A STRONG INDUCEMENT.—The following endorsement of the concerts given by Messrs. Dodge and Hayward, we copy from a letter written by one of the most eminent and eloquent divines in Oregon. He says: "Any influence exerted towards securing those gentlemen a good audience, will certainly serve the cause of morality, and in my judgment, of religion also." This is the way these musical reformers are endorsed everywhere by men of refinement, of intelligence, literary ability and Union sentiment. These gentlemen give their farewell concert in Portland in the court-house on Monday evening next, the 27th.

Q. In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.

Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, and take no other. Sold everywhere.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

PORTLAND, Friday June 24th—3 P. M.

Trade for the week has been inactive, except in certain descriptions of goods, for country orders. The receipts of flour during the time under review, have been fully up to the previous week, and in addition to immense quantities now in store, nearly 300 tons have been shipped to the upper Columbia. One material cause of so much flour going forward at the present time is that direction, is a reduction in carrying that class of freight, by the O. S. N. Co. Prices have not changed, although a little competition today runs outside brands up to $7, in a light transaction. Sales continue to be governed at our wholesale rates.

Wheat has been partially neglected as the receipt is limited to a few bushels only for the week. Oats have been more active and in fair demand at the ruling figures, 65@70 cents. Good Barley is worth 3 cents.

Bacon has been in quite lively demand at 16 to 16½ cts. Large quantities are in store, consigned to our merchants, which must sell at 16 cts.

Butter appears to be in fair demand at somewhat advanced prices. Prime article, for table use, sells at 30 cts. in half bbls, retail 37½. Fresh roll 25@30 cts. Common for cooking, 20@25 cts.

City buyers are paying 16 cents per lb to-day for Oregon Cheese. Eggs 25 cents per dozen, for a few lots, but the average prices are not above 23 cents per doz.

The Fruit and Vegetable market is now quite well supplied, although the season is too far advanced for any other than small lots of some varieties. Cherries are retailing at 50 to 65 cents per lb.; Gooseberries about the same; Currants 25 @37½. Raspberries 20@37½. Blackberries 37½ cts per gallon. Bananas are selling at 10 cents retail, 8 cents wholesale, comprising a lot delivered per bark Cumbridge, from the Sandwich Islands.

Small lots of new Oregon potatoes were in market to-day and sold hastily at $1 per bushel. Green peas retail at 8 @4 cents per lb.

The receipts of treasure from the mining districts since our last week's report have been $142,000, for five days, on Tuesday no bullion arrived. The amount now on hand, available for shipment, will exceed former shipments by the Express Company, and it is not known, and probably never will be known, how much goes in private hands, as it is often the case that parties club together to make remittances, sending by individuals, thus saving to themselves the rates asked on treasure shipped in the regular course of business. The following are the receipts of the week, by Wells, Fargo & Co.:

Friday, 17th inst.	$6,000
Saturday, 18th	2,000
Monday, 20th	6,000
Tuesday, 21st
Wednesday, 22d	95,000
Thursday, 23d	31,000
Total	$142,000

Old Friends.

We just shake hands at meeting
With many that we pass
We all feel glad to greet them
To many it gives joy—
But welcome ever kind gateway
Our few old friends and true
The hearts leap up and say aloud way
Keep open house to

There's open house for you

The surface will be sparkling,
Let but a cloud cast shade
Yet in the darkness shining
The true life of the man
The friend is for the hour
Untried, unfelt, unproved
We keep the best for you

The very best for you

The many cannot know us
They only pass the threshold
Where a few set their abode with us—
The few enshrined with God
But oft beyond all loving
Do purge the dearer and free
And the coldest finds were keeping
A sacred calm for you

Old Friends
A waiting calm for you

A Soldier's Dream

"Cheer up, man! and we'll carry you through."

That was all that the surgeon said. It was a cruel, shattering wound of the thigh. I knew it was a doubtful case. There was not much around me to make cheer. Only one dim light in the ward, and that swaying in the wind that found its way through the chinks, two poor fellows muttering in a fever, and not far and in the cot next to me a drummer boy—dead. The hospital people didn't know as yet, but I did, just before dark he had given a lunge forward, as if he would grasp at something out of his reach, and there he lay his hand stiffened—just where it fell. Until dark I watched his eyelids—open stark wide, and never a wink.

It threatened a change of weather, at least the nurse laid some extra covering at the foot of each of the cots, and pat—pat—pat—I heard her steps go down the wards.

Then I dreamed. It was the old house, red with white trimmings and a lilac bush at the door. Within, there was a bright fire on the hearth. Polly (that's wife) is seated at the table sewing. The two girls, Nelly and "Little Maid" (so we call her) are perched on a stool near their mother, busy at their patchwork, (they made a deal of patchwork, those little ones!)

It seemed to me, "Little Maid" said presently, "See Andy, mother! And Polly looks at Andy—which was our shag terrier, and a rare ratter to be sure—and says "take it from him, quick!"

And the maid takes from the dog a long strip of brown cloth, with little sprigs scattered up and down, which I remember was a part of an old dress in which I had often seen Polly, she wore at the first day we went into the red house home, and now she is making some patch-work of it—always busy, that little woman.

The children are stitching upon diamond-shaped pieces, which, though I had never much eye for colors, or for figures, I see plainly are parts of baby dresses which they wore years before. The little ones, from time to time, hold up a row of these diamond shapes to show their mother what brave work they have done, and Andy thereupon cocks up his eye and pricks up his ears, as if he were a party to their needle triumphs. All the while there is a low, restless prattle between Nelly and the "Little Maid," but somehow I do not catch the meaning of it, only Polly (I hear her tones full and clear) says once and again—"Well stitched, 'Little Maid!' or, 'there's a good girl Nelly!'"

Andy stirs, sniffs the air with his eye on the door, 'tis a neighbor's step, some good woman who has come for a half hour's chat, and in this way I hear that the "Little Maid" has come to the fifth page in her spelling, and that the patchwork they are so busily stitching upon is to be sent away for the soldiers, and that the scarlet fever is in the village. Whereupon Polly says, 'I wouldn't have John (that's my name) know it for the world."

And the neighbor asks "how is John?"

"Quite well," says Polly, "and coming home God willing, in May."

Whereupon "Little Maid" and Nell, with one voice as it were—"I'm so glad!"

At this I, who had said nothing thus far, and was not seen, felt stirred to speak.

"Bless your dear hearts!" said I, but had got no further when Andy, knowing the voice, I suppose, sprang on me, sprang upon my poor leg—such a twinge as it gave me—and I awoke!

It was not the old home I was in at all, only the pain was real, the solitary lamp swayed in the wind, the dead drummer's hand lay idle, no more waking up for him.

The nurse good soul, spread a coverlet over me—the same which had been lying at my feet since dark. The warmth was very quieting to me, and I fell away shortly into dozing, and then to more dreaming.

In the red house once more, but this time they know I am there, and the little ones nestle about me—so fondly! God bless their hearts! And Polly, in her quiet way stepping still and lifting her finger, checks their noisy mirth, "Not so rough, Little Maid! you will disturb papa!"

I am sick then, possibly the old wound is unhealed, indeed I see cloths lying upon the little stand at the bed side, such as were lying in the hospital yesterday. Polly folds them—Polly arranges them, she lifts a warning finger as "Little Maid" begins to riot again, charges a screen before the fire to keep the light from my eyes—is it my soldier coat? The little ones are probing the pockets and admiring the buttons.

But strangely enough, it seems to me that Polly is wearing the same dress which before she had been cutting into pieces, and the children—though they must have outgrown them by two years or more—wear the same baby gowns which I had seen them stitching into those diamond shapes.

But though I see all this and can hear Andy as he passes across the room, and the rap of his knuckle joint as he gives his fore shoulder a lively scratch—I can say nothing. The waiting faces seem to expect no word from me. This worries me, and I make a grasp at the familiar dress of Polly as she passes to get some explanation.

"Quiet, John, quiet."

It is not Polly who speaks the last word, it is the nurse, I am awake again, and have a fierce clutch upon the coverlet which the nurse would take away, now that morning has fairly come.

As she lifts it—as Heaven it is true—I see the brown stripes of my wife's dress with the fairy green sprigs. I see the diamond shapes of the baby dresses which my children had stitched!

I renew my clutch, "leave it, good woman, it's my own, I saw them make it, my wife's dress, I know the colors."

The woman slips away and presently comes back whispering with the surgeon. "If he's crazed, the game is up with him," says he.

But I'm not crazed, my pulse will tell him that, but a great cheer has come to me from that little glimpse of home, and the fragment of it that came to me, by God's mercy, that night.

I shall be strong enough to travel in May, and will keep Polly's word good.

Nelly! Little Maid! look for me when the lilacs are in bud! And don't be frightened at a crutch.

CHARACTERISTIC ANECDOTE OF GEN GRANT.—After the battle of Pittsburg Landing and General Grant's complete victory at that point General Buell a thorough soldier, began criticizing in a friendly way the impolicy of his having fought a battle with the Tennessee river behind his men. "Where, if beaten, could you have retreated General?" asked Buell. "I didn't mean to be beaten," was Grant's contentious reply. "But suppose you had been defeated despite all your exertions?" "Well there were the transports to carry the remains of the command across the river." "But, General," urged Buell, 'your whole transports could not contain over ten thousand men, and it would be impossible for them to make more than one trip in the face of the enemy." "Well, if I had been beaten," said General Grant, pausing to light another cigar as he spoke "transportation for ten thousand men would have been abundant for all that would be left of us." This anecdote is eminently characteristic, the data for the proper appreciation of it being that Grant had about forty thousand men over the river.

Alexander Dumas in some recent letters from Naples describes the Neapolitans as the vilest liars, slanderers and thieves upon the surface of the earth. Telling tales out of school, Alexander declares that the great Neapolitan seigneurs hesitate not to come and beg for a dinner, always ready to eat toads by way of a dessert when offered by the host. Many of them have no cooking whatever at home, but drive out in the morning with the most splendid liveries, in the most brilliantly emblazoned carriages, to fish for a meal without being more sure of success than the poorest lazzare who starts forth barefooted at the same hour, for the same purpose.

ARTEMUS WARD says: I went to Washington, and put up at a leading hotel, where, seeing the landlord, I accosted him with 'How d'ye do, squire?" "Fifty cents, sir," was his reply. "Sir?" "Half a dollar. We charge twenty five cents for lookin at the landlord, and fifty for speakin' to him. If you want supper, a boy will show you to the dining room for twenty five cents. Your room bein in the tenth story it will cost you a dollar to be shown up there."

'How much do you ax a man for breathin in this equinoxikal tatarn?' said I. 'Ten cents a breath," was his reply.

RECIPE FOR A HAPPY HOME.—We have somewhere met with this assertion, which seems worth repeating. 'Six things are requisite to make a happy home. Integrity must be the architect, and tidiness the upholsterer. It must be warmed by affection, lightened up by cheerfulness and industry must be the ventilator, renewing the atmosphere and bringing in fresh salubrity day by day, while over all, as a protecting canopy, and glory, nothing will suffice except the blessing of Heaven."

"SURGEONS HAVE NO POCKETS."—For we brought nothing into this world and surely we can carry nothing out. Grasp the gilt we gather ever so tightly there is no pocket in the grave clothes we will wear in which we can hide any treasure that will be of use to us when God takes away the soul. Foolish then it is to lay up treasures on the earth, when there is no currency here that is not worthless in that better country, whither we ought to be going.

In the heart of the city of London there is a church where to this day, in pursuance of some old bequest, on every Easter Monday the Rector preaches what is called the "Flower Sermon," which is always about flowers, and the people who come to hear it bring bouquets of flowers in their hands.

To an application to allow a crinoline rebel sympathizer to go South Gen Sherman replied 'We haven't enough transportation to supply the army as we could wish. Two hundred pounds of oats at Chattanooga are worth more than any rebel woman and her baggage. She can't go."

The wife of Dr Wells of West Hartford a lady of 76 years of age recently walked from Harwinton to West Hartford without stopping for rest or refreshment. The distance is 20 miles, and the journey was accomplished before sunset.

They have gingerbread sixty years old but moist and fresh as though baked yesterday, on exhibition at Chicago. Its manufacture is a German secret.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry and it is impossible to over estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most valuable article in Materia Medica and many of the most scientific and practical physicians and chemists have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders a physician and chemist of New York after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city and Prof Booth U S Mint Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see 'American Medical Monthly, July 8, 1856, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms Consumption, Cancer Heart Liver and Kidney Diseases Rheumatism Neuralgia, Nervous Affections Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color hitherto pale relaxed and feeble) he becomes full strong and florid.
